MISFIT STUDIOS' NEW RELEASES -- GAME PRODUCTS

Here is what Misfit Studios released in June of 2017.

MISFIT STUDIOS COMBAT RATING CALCULATOR FOR SAVAGE WORLDS

Stock #: MIS7056

The Misfit Studios Combat Rating Calculator for the Savage Worlds Role-Playing Game enables you to quickly and easily calculate an appropriate combat rating for your heroes to face, as per the Running the Game section of the core rules.

To use the Excel spreadsheet, enter the name of the creature or character you wish to determine the combat rating for, and then enter the required data in the indicated columns (i.e., total value of typical attack, amount of Combat Edges, and Toughness.) The spreadsheet will then provide the combat rating based on whether the character/creature is a Wild Card or Extra, and tally the entire group's combined combat rating. This makes balancing encounters on the fly faster and easier.

This Excel spreadsheet is provided in 97-2003 version to provide broader accessibility.

PLAYER RACES: GOBLINS

Stock #: MIS7055

Want to play goblins in your fantasy Savage Worlds game? Looking to throw some unexpected goblin villain variations at your heroes? Now you can. Within this product you will find seven player race stats for:

- The standard goblin, the baseline fantasy staple we are all familiar with
- The damned goblin is a variation that has served demonic forces so long they now burn with the inner fires of Hell
- The deep goblin lives farther underground even than dwarves, to the point where they seem to be changing into something else entirely
- The frost goblin frequents the coldest climates and are used to food being scarce -- and eating each other when called for
- Half-goblins are the often-tragic result of a forced mating with another race. Stats are given based on the other parent's race.
- The tree goblin is often mistaken for a tree-swinging monkey -- until they strike with their poisoned blowguns, that is
- Water goblins are rare, but can devastate coastal communities with their raids

Both a color and print-friendly version of the product are included.

STRANGE BREW: MAGIC ITEMS

Stock #: MIS0052

Magic items like the classic witch's broom or a potion-brewing cauldron are traditionally as much a part of the witch's mythic history as spells. Strange Brew: Magic Items contains new magic items either usable or created by witches (sometimes both), as well as items created by and for that those who hunt them.
