NEWSLETTER

As with every month, we are cover what's new with Misfit Studios, month's new products, and details on our November 2015 discount promotion. Read on for details!

WHAT'S GOING ON WITH MISFIT STUDIOS

Metahuman Martial Arts 3e continues to make good progress with two more chapters finishing layout. Progress has slowed because I've taken on the role of doing layout for the Bite Me! line as well. This may slow down other projects because of the time involved, but I'm happy that it also means bringing quality control for the product line in-house. Unfortunately, there was also a major international convention last month that my day job required a lot of my time preparing marketing materials for, so that also affected how much work went into Misfit Studios in October.

We launched two new Pathfinder product lines last month: Crawthorne's Catalog of Creatures and Prestigious Paths. Both product lines present a series of brief PDFs that provide an opportunity for new writers looking to break into professional writing the chance to get paid for their work without investing much time in doing so. If you're interested in writing for either, get in contact with us and let us know.
